

Redemption
Johnny Cash

[Intro]

Am

[Verse 1]

Am

From the hands it came down

Dm

From the side it came down

E

From the feet it came down

Am

And ran to the ground

Am

Between heaven and hell

Dm

A teardrop fell

In the deep crimson dew

Am

The tree of life grew

[Chorus]

C

And the blood gave life

G

To the branches of the tree

F

And the blood was the price

G

That set the captives free

C

And the numbers that came

G

Through the fire and the flood

F

Clung to the tree

Am

And were redeemed by the blood

[Verse 2]

Am

From the tree streamed a light

Dm

That started the fight

E

Round the tree grew a vine

Am

On whose fruit I could dine

Am

My old friend Lucifer came

Dm

Fought to keep me in chains

E

But I saw through the tricks

Am

Of six-sixty-six

[Chorus]

C

And the blood gave life

G

To the branches of the tree

F

And the blood was the price

G

That set the captives free

C

And the numbers that came

G

Through the fire and the flood

F

Clung to the tree

Am

And were redeemed by the blood

[Verse 3]

Am

From his hands it came down

Dm

From his side it came down

E

From his feet it came down

Am

And ran to the ground

Am

And a small inner voice

Dm

Said You do have a choice.

E

The vine engrafted me

Am

And I clung to the tree

[Chorus]

C

And the blood gave life

G

To the branches of the tree

F

And the blood was the price

G

That set the captives free

C

And the numbers that came

G

Through the fire and the flood

F

Clung to the tree

Am

And were redeemed by the blood

[Outro]

Am

From his hands it came down

Dm

From his side it came down

E

From his feet it came down

Am

And ran to the ground
