C                      G7                      C

San Quentin, you ve been livin hell to me

C                      F                      C

You ve hosted me since nineteen sixty three

F    C

I ve seen em come and go and I ve seen them die

C                      G7                      C

And long ago I stopped askin why

C                      G7                      C

San Quentin, I hate every inch of you.

C                      F                      C

You ve cut me and have scarred me thru an thru.

F                      C      G      C

And I ll walk out a wiser weaker man;

C                      G7                      C

Mister Congressman why can t you understand.

C                      G7                      C

San Quentin, what good do you think you do?

C                      F                      C

Do you think I ll be different when you re through?

F    C

You bent my heart and mind and you may my soul,

C                      G7                      C

And your stone walls turn my blood a little cold.

Narrando = [*]

          C                                  G                                  C
[*] San Quentin, may you rot and burn in hell.

          C                                  F                                  C
[*] May your walls fall and may I live to tell.

          F                                  C
May all the world forget you ever stood.

          C                                  G7                                  C
And may all the world regret you did no good.

          C                                  G7                                  C
San Quentin, you ve been livin hell to me.
