

All For The Love Of A Girl Johnny Horton

All For The Love Of A Girl: Johnny Horton.
This one hit the Billboard charts in 1959 and was a big hit. It was the B-Side of his
#1 hit, The Battle Of New Orleans. Lobo
recorded it 1973 with not much success.

#1.(Capo 2nd fret for original.)

C

Well, today I m so weary.

F C

Today, I m so blue.

F C

Sad and broken hearted.

G7

And it s all because of you.

#2.

C

Life was so sweet girl.

F C

Life was a song.

F C

Now, you ve gone and left me.

G7 C

Oh, where do I go belong?

CHORUS:

C

And it s all for the love,

F C

of a dear little girl.

C

All for the love,

G7

that sets your heart in a whirl.

C

I m a man who d give his life,

F C

and the joys of this world.

G7

C

All, for the love, of a girl.

INTERLUDE: C G7 C F C

CHORUS:

C

And it s all for the love,

F C
of a dear little girl.
C
All for the love,
G7
that sets your heart in a whirl.
C
I m a man who d give his life,
F C
and the joys of this world.
G7 C
All, for the love, of a girl.

A fifties smash from Kraziekhat.
