

Tender Mirror
Jolie Holland

This is my first tab, and this song is beautifully complex in its instrumentation and timing and I don't know how to reflect that. However, I really wanted to play it and couldn't find any tabs for it anywhere, so I figured out a basic version and am posting it here. Comments and corrections welcome! This is from her Pint of Blood album

D                    G                    D
What I got, They ain't got
D                                    G                    D
I got something- I got a lot
D                                    G                    D
What I lost in a broken sphere
D                                    G                    D
I'll find in a tender mirror
A
In the Love from the heart
D                                    G                    D
What he's got he's got it to spare
D                                    G                    D
They can't hold a candle there
A
They're lost without a spark

D>G(SHORT)>D>G(SHORT)>D

D                                    G                    D
What she's got she's got it in spades
D                                    G                    D
Cast Adrift on the rolling waves
D                                    G                    D
Rocking out on the stormy sea
D                                    G                    D
Her spirit comes to me
A
In the love from the heart

G                                    D
I'm not in Love with a Stranger Anymore
D
I slipped out of the spell-You can go to hell
A
If that's what you're headed for

G Unintelligible cries of an animal in the night

D
Mean more to my ear than the noise I hear

A
Your trying to get it right

G That s fine-You know-I m so happy that your re gone

D
All the bells ring out we can sing & shout

A
and drink carry on

G in the love from the heart

D
In the Love from the Heart

G in the love from the heart
