Intro: C/G      Am      C/G      Am

C/G

Spent my days in a cold war, fighting with myself

Am

Spent my time like money, counted up my wealth

C/G

Saved up all my moments for, situations coming, but

Am

I don t know much about nothing, I barely know myself.

C/G

Mhmmm...

Am

Mhmmm...

C/G

Oh the bank that s my head, its filled up to the brim

Am

It s bursting at the seams with, thoughts ideas and dreams, and

C/G

My thinking adviser, he loses focus easily

Am

Leaves me with a balance due, at least that s how it seems.

C/G

Mhmmm...

Am

Mhmmm...

C/G

Mhmmm...

Am

Mhmmm...

C/G

How come there s no manual, to tell me how to be, and I

Am

Hardly have a theory, just hypotheses, and

C/G

Since I don t have no Gods, to help me with what I see, then that

Am

Leaves me here with myself, the work is up to me.

C/G

Mhmmm mmm wooo...

Am

Mhmmm mmm mmmooo...

C/G

Mhmmm mmm wooo...

Am

Mhmmm...

Notes:

The G in the base is not that important, but if you are going to strum all six strings then it s needed, otherwise skip the E string. Jon plays the C/G.

You can emulate the bass walk down in between the chord changes of C/G to Am with this sequence (or some similar variation)

	C/G	Am
e	--0-----0----
B	--1-----1----
G	--0-----2----
D	--2-----2----
A	--3--2--0--0----
E	--3-----0----

And from Am to C/G just do the reverse (or some similar variation)

	Am	C/G
e	--0-----0----
B	--1-----1----
G	--2-----0----
D	--2-----2----
A	--0--2--3--3----
E	--0-----3----
