

David Livingstone

Jon Bryant

Capo 6

G C G
You be a mystery and i will uncover the truth
G C D
You be the chorus and ill be the verse to go through
C D Em G
you be the dynamite blasting away at the walls we take apart
C D G
you be Dave Livingstone, ill be his African heart

G C G
you be my walker and stay with me as i grow frail
G C D
you be the wind and direct me when i lose the sail
C D Em G
you be the resonance pulsing through every nerve that fails my knees
C D G
You be John Lennon, and ill be the world that he see s

Chorus:

C D
sweet midsummer nights
Em G
with you in my life
C D
with you in my life

G C G
You be a flask and ill be the comfort you hold
G C D
You can be stranded and ill bring you in from the cold
C D Em G
You be the ambulance racing me back to that old familiar door
C D G
You be Theresa, and ill be your hands to the poor

G C G
You be a train track, and ill never leave you for long
G C D
you be new land, and ill plot my home in your arms
C D Em G
You be the coffee that brings me to life in the early winter blue
C D G
You be my lady and ill be your man, through and through.
C D G
You be my lady and ill be your man through and through.
