Jon Fratelli - Rhythm Doesn't Make You a Dancer

Intro x2

Am C/B C G

Am C/B C G

Well it was my finest hour yes it was ah ha

Am C/B C G

I was the last of the believers in the cause ah ha

Am C/B C G Am

They tried to sell me Jacob's glory and the answers to the story and the rhythm

C/B C G

of the laughable applause

Am C/B C G

So I buried my belief and rode the train ah ha

Am C/B C G

I sang Your Lover Is A Liar in the rain ah ha

Am C/B C G Am C/B

And though a man he has to eat he's always drowning in defeat only a fool would

C E7

think the world is round anyway

Am

Put your money right where your mouth is

F E7

Don't go deaf or blind just to find this

Am

One plus one don't equal an answer

F E7

Rhythm doesn't make you a dancer

Am C/B C G

There was a message in the Herald Tribune ah ha

Am C/B C G
About a house of misrepute the couldn t ruin ah ha
Am C/B C G Am
And though the medicine they chose was dedicated to the rose it sucked the life
C/B C G
from this ridiculous cartoon

Am C/B C G
And so I made some old excuse and I declined ah ha
Am C/B C G
To be a joker and a poacher of the mind ah ha
Am C/B C G Am
And through the window in the gate I spied the dagger on the plate and left
C/B C E7
every desperate one of them behind

Am
Put your money right where your mouth is
F E7
Don t go deaf or blind just to find this
Am
One plus one don t equal an answer
F E7
Rhythm doesn t make you a dancer
