BIRTHDAY SONG
Jon Lajoie

Capo: 6th
Chords: G C D Em

G

It s your birthday today

What does that mean, I guess Iâ€™ll try to explain

C

That many years ago on this day

D

G

It was the first time your parents saw your beautiful face

And nine months before that magical day

Your dad probably took your mom out on a date

C

And they were having a good time

G

They were dancing and drinking wine

C

D

Happy birthday

Em

G

Happy birthday

D

G

Happy birthday

And when they got home they were horny as hell

And your dad threw your mom down on the bed

C

And he tore her panties off

G

And his penis was hard as a rock

And at this point your mom wanted to give your dad head

But your dad also wanted to give your mom head

C

So they formed a sixty-nine

G

And your mom came at least three times

And then your dad was so excited to get inside your mom

That he forgot to put a condom on

C

And when he realized his mistake

D

G

He had ejaculated and it was too late

C

D

And then your mom got pregnant

Em

G

And your dad started crying

C

D

He wanted your mom to get an abortion

Em

G

But your mom wanted a child

C

D

And nine months later you were born

Em

C

G

And then five months later your parents got a divorce
