

Pop Song

Jon Lajoie

~TheKidGuitar~

This is really for fun. I don't even believe this has any guitar parts in it, but for messing around with friends, or just hangin', I'd do it like this...

Almost the whole song is:

C (Am)

The exception is:

Now I'm singing with my gay voice
To let you know that I'm sensitive
Oh yeah I'm singing with my gay voice girls love a sensitive boy, and you know I wanna-

And then it goes back into the original C structure

Adding in an A minor is optional for a quick transition if you are just playing for your friends, but overall, it's very simple and fun.
