NOTHING TO SHOW Jon Langford (With Richard Buckner)

G

G Nothing to show for the things that I ve done Am

Am There were places to go and I had to choose this one D C
G

Am Well I had some dreams in My head, had some tricks up my sleeve C
Am

G Now I ll be lucky to leave with my life, yes Ill be lucky to leave

G Over The line and into your bed Am
Am D

C Where desire and shame consume like a flame, and wise men might fear to tread Am
G You closed my mouth with a touch, I said too much Am
Am C

G Oh you tried to turn back the tide, you didn t want to know

Chorus:

Am You can find me here where the city lights burn D G C

Am The stars right out of the sky D G

Am And the birds sing all night as the traffic rolls by D G

Am loosing my name like the millions who came D

G just to say that they were right C

Am We ll be lucky to leave, lucky to leave with our lives C

Am We ll be lucky to leave, lucky to leave with our lives C G

G Nothing to show since it all went wrong Am

Am and nowhere to go but the streets that I m walking on D C
G

Am

I had changed horse in midstream, i went down like a stone

Am

C

Thought Id slip off the hook, now Im battered and cooked, gutted and boned

Chorus
