

Nothing To Show
Jon Langford

NOTHING TO SHOW Jon Langford (With Richard Buckner)

G#

G#

Bbm

Nothing to show for the things that I ve done

Bbm

Eb

C#

There were places to go and I had to choose this one

G#

Bbm

Well I had some dreams in My head, had some tricks up my sleeve

Bbm

C#

G#

Now I ll be lucky to leave with my life, yes Ill be lucky to leave

G#

Bbm

Over The line and into your bed

Bbm

Eb

C#

Where desire and shame consume like a flame, and wise men might fear to tread

G#

Bbm

You closed my mouth with a touch, I said too much

Bbm

C#

G#

Oh you tried to turn back the tide, you didn t want to know

Chorus:

Bbm

Eb

G#

C#

You can find me here where the city lights burn

Bbm

Eb

G#

The stars right out of the sky

Bbm

Eb

G#

And the birds sing all night as the traffic rolls by

Bbm

Eb

loosing my name like the millions who came

G#

C#

just to say that they were right

Bbm

C#

We ll be lucky to leave, lucky to leave with our lives

Bbm

C#

G#

We ll be lucky to leave, lucky to leave with our lives

G#

Bbm

Nothing to show since it all went wrong

Bbm

Eb

C#

and nowhere to go but the streets that I m walking on

G#

Bbm

I had changed horse in midstream, i went down like a stone

Bbm

C#

G#

Thought Id slip off the hook, now Im battered and cooked, gutted and boned

Chorus

G#

Bbm
