

Nothing To Show
Jon Langford

NOTHING TO SHOW Jon Langford (With Richard Buckner)

G#

G# Nothing to show for the things that I ve done Bbm

Bbm There were places to go and I had to choose this one Eb C#
G#

Bbm Well I had some dreams in My head, had some tricks up my sleeve
Bbm C#

G# Now I ll be lucky to leave with my life, yes Ill be lucky to leave

G# Over The line and into your bed Bbm

Bbm Eb
C#

Where desire and shame consume like a flame, and wise men might fear to tread
G#

Bbm You closed my mouth with a touch, I said too much
Bbm C#

G# Oh you tried to turn back the tide, you didn t want to know

Chorus:

Bbm You can find me here where the city lights burn Eb G# C#

Bbm The stars right out of the sky Eb G#

Bbm And the birds sing all night as the traffic rolls by Eb G#

Bbm loosing my name like the millions who came Eb
G# C#

just to say that they were right
Bbm C#

We ll be lucky to leave, lucky to leave with our lives
Bbm C# G#

We ll be lucky to leave, lucky to leave with our lives

G# Nothing to show since it all went wrong Bbm

Bbm and nowhere to go but the streets that I m walking on Eb C#

G#

Bbm

I had changed horse in midstream, i went down like a stone

Bbm

C#

G#

Thought Id slip off the hook, now Im battered and cooked, gutted and boned

Chorus

G# Bbm
