

Nothing To Show
Jon Langford

NOTHING TO SHOW Jon Langford (With Richard Buckner)

F

F Nothing to show for the things that I ve done Gm

Gm There were places to go and I had to choose this one C Bb

F

Gm Well I had some dreams in My head, had some tricks up my sleeve Bb

F Now I ll be lucky to leave with my life, yes Ill be lucky to leave

F Over The line and into your bed Gm

Gm Where desire and shame consume like a flame, and wise men might fear to tread C Bb

F You closed my mouth with a touch, I said too much Gm

Gm Oh you tried to turn back the tide, you didn t want to know Bb

F

Chorus:

Gm You can find me here where the city lights burn C F Bb

Gm The stars right out of the sky C F

Gm And the birds sing all night as the traffic rolls by C F

Gm loosing my name like the millions who came C

F just to say that they were right Bb

Gm We ll be lucky to leave, lucky to leave with our lives Bb

Gm We ll be lucky to leave, lucky to leave with our lives Bb F

F Nothing to show since it all went wrong Gm

Gm and nowhere to go but the streets that I m walking on C Bb

F

Gm

I had changed horse in midstream, i went down like a stone

Gm

Bb

F

Thought Id slip off the hook, now Im battered and cooked, gutted and boned

Chorus

F Gm
