

Nothing To Show
Jon Langford

NOTHING TO SHOW Jon Langford (With Richard Buckner)

A

A Nothing to show for the things that I ve done Bm

Bm There were places to go and I had to choose this one E D

Bm Well I had some dreams in My head, had some tricks up my sleeve D

A Now I ll be lucky to leave with my life, yes Ill be lucky to leave

A Over The line and into your bed Bm

Bm E

D Where desire and shame consume like a flame, and wise men might fear to tread

A You closed my mouth with a touch, I said too much Bm

Bm D

A Oh you tried to turn back the tide, you didn t want to know

Chorus:

Bm You can find me here where the city lights burn E A D

Bm The stars right out of the sky E A

Bm And the birds sing all night as the traffic rolls by E A

Bm loosing my name like the millions who came E

A just to say that they were right D

Bm We ll be lucky to leave, lucky to leave with our lives D

Bm We ll be lucky to leave, lucky to leave with our lives D A

A Nothing to show since it all went wrong Bm

Bm and nowhere to go but the streets that I m walking on E D

Bm

I had changed horse in midstream, i went down like a stone

D

Thought Id slip off the hook, now Im battered and cooked, gutted and boned

Chorus

A Bm
