

Nothing To Show
Jon Langford

NOTHING TO SHOW Jon Langford (With Richard Buckner)

A

A Nothing to show for the things that I ve done Bm

Bm There were places to go and I had to choose this one E D

A

Bm

Well I had some dreams in My head, had some tricks up my sleeve

Bm D

A

Now I ll be lucky to leave with my life, yes Ill be lucky to leave

A Bm

Over The line and into your bed

Bm E

D

Where desire and shame consume like a flame, and wise men might fear to tread

A Bm

You closed my mouth with a touch, I said too much

Bm D

Oh you tried to turn back the tide, you didn t want to know

Chorus:

Bm E A D

You can find me here where the city lights burn

Bm E A

The stars right out of the sky

Bm E A

And the birds sing all night as the traffic rolls by

Bm E

loosing my name like the millions who came

A D

just to say that they were right

Bm

We ll be lucky to leave, lucky to leave with our lives D

Bm

D

We ll be lucky to leave, lucky to leave with our lives A

A Bm

Nothing to show since it all went wrong

Bm E D

and nowhere to go but the streets that I m walking on

A

Bm

I had changed horse in midstream, i went down like a stone

Bm

D

Thought Id slip off the hook, now Im battered and cooked, gutted and boned

Chorus

A Bm
