

Take Your Place

Jon Thurlow

This songs repeats upon itself melodically, picking up the energy and fervor as the song moves along. The original song is found in the key of E (starts with C#m), but I transposed it to the key of G below because I find it easier to play.

Em C G D
Come and take Your place in the center of our hearts

Em C G D
Come and take Your place

Em C G D Em C G D

My soul longs for You LORD in a

Em C G D Em C G D

Dry and weary land