Verse 1

D G
Kenesaw Mountain Landis was a bad mother fucker
D Em A7
He was seventeen feet tall, he had a hundred and fifty wives
D G
He didn't do that much except he saved the game of baseball
D G D A7
He put two and two together and he noticed it was four
D G D A7
Now the treachery of Shoeless Joe can't hurt us anymore
D G A7 D A(break)
And he'll always be remembered as Kenesaw Mountain Landis

Verse 2

D G
Fellow named Joe Jackson was a fielder for the Black Sox
D Em A7
And he always wore his black socks, but he never wore no shoes
D G
He weren't the nicest fellow and he had a couple problems
D G D A7
Cause he drank a lot and he beat his wife and he always acted rude
D G D A7
He killed and ate some babies and he copped an attitude
D G A7 D A(break)
And the one man that he hated most was Kenesaw Mountain Landis

Bridge 1

Bm
Mafia said Shoeless Joe
F#
You should really run this show
D
You should be the guy who owns baseball
Bm
And all you really gotta do

F#

Is help us make a buck or two

D G A7

We ll bet on the other team

D G A7

You ll lose the game but make it seem

D G A7

Like nothing could be further from the truth

Verse 3

D G

Shoeless Joe did what they said he dropped a couple fly balls

D Em A7

And he walked up to the pitcher and he poked him in the eye

D G

And in the seventh inning with the Black Sox nearly beaten

D G D A7

There was someone who was watching from his blimp above the stands

D G D A7

Cradling a rifle in his thick and meaty hands

D G A D A(break)

And as if you hadn t guessed yet it was Kenesaw Mountain Landis

Bridge 2

Bm

Kenesaw said drop that glove

F#

Or I swear by God above

D

I ll make you regret playing baseball

Bm

Shoeless Joe looked up and saw

F#

The silver rifle s gaping maw

D G A7

Though no one had noticed yet

D G A7

His underwear was getting wet

D G A7

He peed himself in front of everyone

Slow Verse

D G

Shoeless Joe was finished but he couldn t quite admit it

D Em A7

So he raised his middle finger up above the other four

D G

Kenesaw took careful aim and fired a single bullet

D G D A7

And he shot that dirty finger off and he dropped his trusty gun

D G D A7

And everybody in the stands knew that he had won

D G A7 D

And today they still refer to him as Kenesaw Mountain Landis

Final Verse

D G
Shoeless Joe left baseball and became a famous pop star
D Em A7 D
And he asked the musical question is she really going out with him
G
He had a couple albums and a comeback in the 80 s
D G D A7
But he never won a Grammy and he never was the same
D G D A7
And he never could be satisfied with critical acclaim
D G A7 D A7
Cause the critics all confused him with the great Elvis Costello
D G A7 D
Yes the critics all confused him with the great Elvis Costello
