Verse 1

E G# C#7
Tom Cruise is so in love with Katie
F#m B7
At least all his people tell him so
E G# C#7
And while he thinks that she s a very special lady
F#m B7 G#
It s probably not the way he d choose to go
A E F#m C#m
And a lifetime of longing looks would cause too much distraction
A E B7
Good thing that he s not gay anymore

Chorus

E G# A E
Tom Cruise is Tom Cruise crazy
F#m B7 E B7
Just be glad it s him not you
E G# A E
If you had Tom Cruise s troubles
F#m B7 G#
You might be Tom Cruise crazy too
C#m E7
You d flash your big white shiny smile
A Am
You d buy expensive shoes
E G# C#7
But you d be the only man on Earth
F#m B7 E

Who couldn't enjoy Tom Cruise

C#7 F#m B7 E (re-intro)

Oh no, you couldn't enjoy Tom Cruise

Verse 2

E G# C#7

Tom Cruise is always getting older

F#m B7

He knows he'll never be that young again

E G# C#7

And when Tom Cruise looks back over his shoulder

F#m B7 G#

He sees a thousand younger leading men

A E

He knows someday he'll have to play

F#m C#m

An old retarded grandpa

A E B7

While someone younger plays his sexy son

Chorus

E G# A E

Tom Cruise is Tom Cruise crazy

F#m B7 E B7

Just be glad it's him not you

E G# A E

If you had Tom Cruise's troubles

F#m B7 G#

You might be Tom Cruise crazy too

C#m E7

You'd flash your big white shiny smile

A Am

Tom Cruise knows somewhere there's a place for him

C G Am B7

He's not of this world anymore...

Verse 3

E G# C#7

Somewhere in some secluded castle

F#m B7

Poor Tom Cruise sits staring at the wall

E G# C#7

And the outside world is always such a hassle

F#m B7 G#

Sometimes he won't go out at all

A E

There are millions who know his name

F#m C#m

Everybody loves him

A E B7

Why is it that he feels so alone?
