Riff1 E Riff1 E Riff1

Verse:

E E7type1 A Am E E7type1 A D Dsus4 D
I run the God damned pretzel store at Buckingham Mall

E E7type1 A Am E E7type1 A D Dsus4 D
Here on the east wing s second floor I m belle of the ball

Ctype1 B7
But at night I could swear that I m someone else

Am B7 Riff1
Someone who s better

Chorus:

E G# C#m E7type2
Why does no one come here to save me?

A7 B7 E A B7
Why won t anybody stay?

E G# C#m E7type2 A7 B7
Cause I ve got it in my head that maybe you could be her

Fill 1:

E Riff1

Verse:

Six hundred dollars, seven days, and I drink all I make
While people with great big fat BA s, they move and they shake
I can t dress me up, I can t take me out
I can t do nothing

Chorus:

Why does no one come here to save me?
Why won t anybody stay?
Cause I ve got it in my head that maybe you could be her

Break:

A7 B7 A7 B7
You don t come by no more
A7 B7 A7 B7
You never wear that sweater I like
A7 B7 A7 B7
You don t say nothing makes me think I ll ever get out of here

Verse:

Six in the morning, I m awake, and it s nobody s fault
I knot them up tightly, watch them bake, and rub in the salt
Somewhere there s a hell that was meant for me
And I think I found it

Chorus:

Why does no one come here to save me?
Why won t anybody stay?
A7 B7
Cause I ve got it in my head that maybe you could be her
A7 B7
you could be her
