

The Happiest Day Of Your Life
Jonathan Rice

sorry, i don t know the beginning
but this is the way J.Rice plays this song

G Em C D

G C D G

G

I stood in the park

Em

like a photograph until

C

way after dark

D

and i rented suithold

G

in my homeless heart

C D G

in the freezing summer

G

I couldn t stand the test

Em

I choked on the words

C

I wish you the best

D

I walked away and

G

put my gifts with the rest

C D G

but my box was empty

C

well I can stand the winter and the blazing heat

D

I can stand right in the city streets

Em

my love for you will stand the test of time

C

D

the happiest day of your life

C D G

was the worst day of mine

G Em C D

G C D G

G

Eighty six farenheight

Em

I stand alone in the

C

punched in light

D

running the thought of you

G

out of my mind

C D G

but it ain t working

G

I love you babe

Em

the first time I said it

C

I was so afraid

D

I wish I d have said it

G

on your wedding day

G

life would be amazing

C

well I can stand the winter and the blazing heat

D

I can stand right in the city streets

Em

my love for you will stand the test of time

C

D

the happiest day of your life

C D G

was the worst day of mine
