Nathan La Franeer
Joni Mitchell
[Intro]
Gm Dm Gm Dm
[Verse 1]
Gm
I hired a coach to take me from confusion to the plane
And though we shared a common space I know I ll never meet again
                                        Dm
The driver with his eyebrows furrowed in the rear-view mirror
I read his name and it was plainly written Nathan La Franeer
I asked him would he hurry
But we crawled the canyons slowly
             Dm
Through the buyers and the sellers
                                                  C
Through the burglar bells and the wishing wells
With gangs and girly shows
             Gm
The ghostly garden grows
[Verse 2]
     CIm
The cars and buses bustled thru the bedlam of the day
                  Cm
I looked through window-glass at streets and Nathan grumbled at the grey
I saw an aging cripple selling Superman balloons
The city grated through chrome-plate
The clock struck slowly half-past-noon
Through the tunnel tiled and turning
Into daylight once again I am escaping
Once again goodbye
To symphonies and dirty trees

With parks and plastic clothes The ghostly garden grows [Verse 3] Gm He asked me for a dollar more He cursed me to my face CmHe hated everyone who paid to ride And share his common space I picked my bags up from the curb And stumbled to the door CmAnother man reached out his hand Another hand reached out for more And I filled it full of silver And I left the fingers counting And the sky goes on forever G C Without meter maids and peace parades Gm Bb D7 You feed it all your woes Gm The ghostly garden grows Bb D7 You feed it all your woes Gm The ghostly garden grows
