

Sisotowbell Lane
Joni Mitchell

[Intro]

D D6

[Verse One]

D D6
Sisotowbell Lane

D G
Noah is fixing the pump in the rain

D
He brings us no shame

Am G D
We always knew that he always knew

D D6
Up over the hill

D G
Jovial neighbours come down when they will

D
With stories to tell

Am
Sometimes they do

G D
Yes sometimes we do

C
We have a rocking chair

D
Each of us rocks his share

Bm
Eating muffin buns and berries

Am
By the steamy kitchen window

Sometimes we do

G D D6 D D6
Our tongues turn blue

[Verse Two]

D D6
Sisotowbell Lane

D G
Anywhere else now would seem very strange

D
The seasons are changing

Am G D
Everyday in everyway

D D6
Sometimes it is spring
D G
Sometimes it is not anything

D
A poet can sing

Am
Sometimes we try
G D

Yes we always try

C
We have a rocking chair

D
Somedays we rock and stare

Bm
At the woodlands and the grasslands and the badlands cross the river

Am
Sometimes we do
G D D6 D D6

We like the view

[Verse Three]

D D6
Sisotowbell Lane

D G
Go to the city you ll come back again

D
To wade through the grain

Am
You always do

G D
Yes we always do

D6
Come back to the stars

D G
Sweet well water and pickling jars

D
We ll lend you the car

Am
We always do

G D
Yes sometimes we do

C
We have a rocking chair

D
Someone is always there

Bm Am
Rocking rhythms while they re waiting with the candle in the window

Sometimes we do
G D D6 D D6 D
We wait for you
