

Walking Away

Jonny Lang

Cry but don t cry for me

C Am

I can t take it no more

F

That s the way it must be

G

You can t lie your way back in

Back into my heart

Oo I won t let it be broken again

I took a tumble started to stumble; that s when I fell

F C

Into a love I thought was sent from above; I was under your spell

G C

All the things that mattered were broken and shattered; one by one

F C

I was so sad, but now I m just glad that it s over and done
