

Someone To Love
Joseph Arthur

Someone To Love
by: Joseph Arthur

--- any mistakes by: Signpost ---

C
In the time of my dying
G
I was making promises I couldnâ€™t keep
C G
Lying to you, You and me
C
Held by my addiction
F
Everything I thought I needed
C G C
I couldnâ€™t keep If I was to get myself free

Am G Am
You gotta let somebody into your hurt
G Am
You gotta let somebody feelin your hurt
G Am
Someone to love Someone to love
G -----> C
Someone to love

C
I came to live in your shelter
G
cause theres never a day when Iâ€™m not afraid
C
Looking for an answer
G
Mentally I was no more than a slave
C
Will you help me surrender?
F C
You said that I have to become a dancer
G C
and started shooting at my feet

Am G Am
You gotta let somebody into your hurt
G Am
You gotta let somebody feelin your hurt
G Am

Someone to love Someone to love

G

Someone to love

[instrumental melody]

C G C G (hold the last G longer)

C

I did believe in your answer

G

But you said Iâ€™ve still got a long way to go

C

Cause the day wonâ€™t remember

G

what the yearâ€™s dying for you to know

C

Who you are

F C

Once you find out youâ€™ve probably already gone too far

G

C

to ever find your way back home

Am G Am

You gotta let somebody into your hurt

G

Am

You gotta let somebody feelin your hurt

G

Am

Someone to love Someone to love

G

Someone to love

* This last part repeats a few more times with some vocal variations before ending on the G chord.