

Higher Window
Josh Groban

Josh Groban- Higher Window

Slow, sweet, fingerpicked- note that the chorus is heavier and more powerful

Listen for the fingerpicking pattern and how long each chord is held in the intro and breaks

Intro: F C B Am G Em F Em G

For all the times I tried for this F C
And every chance at you I missed B? Am G
Iâ€™ve been known to go my way, but I confess Em F C
It made me miss you more B? Am G
I drew my line across the sand F C
And set my flag in no manâ€™s land B? Am G
But here I am the one man band Em F C
With a song thatâ€™s meant for two B? C

And there is a light, from a higher window F G Am
Shining down on you tonight F Em G
And the music floats on the breeze Em Am
Bringing an easier time C G
And all of our cards are on the table G Am
Tell me what you want to do F Em G
Just donâ€™t tell me that itâ€™s too late F G
For me to love you C

Break: F C B Am G Em F Em G

How perfect we were meant to be F C
B? Our warm and silent symmetry Am G
Em It's times like these when all, all we need F C
G Is to be reminded
F And I have flown a thousand miles
C To empty room and crowded aisles
Am And we went from cathedral bells
G To show and tell and wish you wells Em
F And I, I still look at you and I am blinded I am blinded C G Am

G Am
 Because there is a light, from a higher window
F Em G
 Shining down on us tonight
Em Am
 And the music floats on the breeze
C G
 From an easier time
G Am
 And all of our cards are on the table
F Em G
 Tell me what you want to do
F G
 Just don't tell me that it's too late
F G
 Don't tell me that it's too late now
F G
 Just don't tell me that it's too late
 For me to love you

F C B Am G F C