

Redemption Days

Josh Osho

This is my first tab so please excuse me if it s not entirely correct!
No capo (original version)

It s basically just F, C, G the whole way through

F C G
Sweet, sweet were the memories,
G F
Song and the symphony,
C G
That we had yesterday.
F C G
Ohh, free, free were these city roads
F
but now I feel so over grown
C G
and hard to escape
F C
but deep beyond the surface lies
G
A power in us that never dies
F C G
Before itâ€™s so unjustified but still you carry on
F C G
Youâ€™re a soldier, oh youâ€™re a fighter
F C G
Donâ€™t go an waste another day just take what comes your way, ohh

Chorus:

F C G
If you know what you want to feel an how high
G
you want to feel it,
F C G
if you know what you want to say oh I wanna hear you say it.
F C G
If you know where you wanna go an how far, do you wanna take it
F C
â€™cause no matter what mistakes youâ€™ve made
G
These are your redemption days.

-Then carry on the pattern for the rest of the song-

No white flag outside your door
weâ€™ll navigate them for the sure for an easy get away
Youâ€™re mind looking out for circumstance

Is really gonna make the difference
To know the right game to play
And voices tell to be hold
Upon the wreckage lies soul
That knows the path to fields of gold,
Itâ€™s where you wanna reach.
Youâ€™re a soldier, ohh youâ€™re a fighter
Don t go and waste another day just take what comes your way, ohh

Chorus:

If you know what you want to feel an how high
Do you want to feel it,
if you know what you want to say oh I wanna hear you say it.

If you know where you wanna go an how far, do you wanna take it
â€™cause no matter what mistakes youâ€™ve made
These are your redemption days.

For the Holy day cometh when you chose your destination
A man sacrifice his life for salvation
So we can sing Bob Marley songs of redemption
You a believer or non-believer, there s no exception
I walk through the ashes when the Lord burn the sinners bare footed, all draped out in linens
Repented, I lived though sacrifice and now I wait my eternal residence in paradise
I walk the righteous path through the garden of eden with the enlightened mind I got from the knowledge of readin
hard to believe I achieve through the divine intervention
Iâ€™m a soldier Iâ€™ll be standing on the day of redemption

Chorus:

If you know what you want to feel an how high
Do you want to feel it,
if you know what you want to say oh I wanna hear you say it.
If you know where you wanna go an how far, do you wanna take it
â€™cause no matter what mistakes youâ€™ve made
