Em        D        G        C
I feel you love like a punch in the heart
          Em        D        G        C
cause every time your near im back to the start
          Em        D        G        C
and time keeps making a mess of me
          Em        D        G        C
im like a rusted old boat lost out at sea

C    D    Em    C    G
cold wind blows, hard on me
          C    D    Em    C    G
and i hear your ghost calling me,
C                    G                    D                    C
calling from the warm shore to carry me home, i hear you
Em                    G                    D                    C
calling from the warm shore to carry me home

Em        D        G        C
and the wheels keep taking me back to street
          Em                                    D                                    G                                    C
where i would press you against the bonet just to feel your heat, where i
          Em                                    D                                    G                                    C
would press you against the bonet to keep our heat

C    D    Em    C    G
cold wind blows, hard on me
          C    D    Em    C    G
and i hear your ghost calling me,
C                    G                    D                    C
calling from the warm shore to carry me home, i hear you
Em                    G                    D                    C
calling from the warm shore to carry me home
