

Lark
Josh Ritter

Josh Ritter - Lark

Alternate between D, Dsus2 and Dsus4 as you feel fit for some of the D chords...

Capo 5th

D
The golden ratio the shell
D A
The stairs ascending round themselves
D A G A
The trees rustle as if to kneel and listen
D G A D
To the heartbeat of a lark or the lark in my heartbeat

D
The oxygen in priestly green
D A
The answers dressed in labyrinthine
D A G A
The telescopes atop the mountains of ecstatic vision listening
D G A D
To the heartbeat of a lark or the lark in my heartbeat

|: D A :|
|: Hey, hey hey :|

G D G D
I am assured, yes I am assured yes
Bm A G D
I am assured that peace will come to me
G D G D
A peace that can yes surpass the speed yes
Bm A G D
Of my understanding and my need

D
The meteoric warp and went
D A
In counterbalance to the spark ever ascending
D A G A
The arrow shoots forward though it moves through repetition
D G A D
To the heartbeat of a lark or the lark in my heartbeat

|: D A :|

|:Hey, hey hey :|

D

What is it that drives the driven snow now?

D A G A

Upon whose temples with I rest my weary hopes now?

D A G A

The rain distills down steeples fills the ears of lonely church mice

D G A D

With the heartbeat of a lark or the lark in my heartbeat

|:D A :|

|:Hey, hey hey :|

Repeat Chorus, end on G