

What I See Now
Josh Wilson

C F/A C
If I could go back to the 7th grade
C G
I ll tell myself you ll be okay
Am F/A C
You re the last one picked and the first one out
F
Boy, don t let it get you down
Middle school is a lonely road
You re faking sick to stay at home
But give it time and you will find
Friends you ll have for your whole life

F C Am F C Am
Oh, you re gonna make it through
F C Am
I promise that you do

bridge)
Somehow, I wish you could see what I see now

If I could go back to 23
To the nights I cried myself to sleep
Lying in my bed alone
With nobody to have and hold
I d say that I know the feeling well
When the girl you love loves someone else
But give it time and you will find
A lover who won t leave your side

Am F
I see a perfect plan, I see God s guiding hand
C G
I see a better man, you ll be a better man
Am F
Sometimes it takes a while, sometimes it takes the trials
C
To open up your eyes

So here I am at 29
But I feel just like that boy sometimes
Praying, please God, give me faith
To make it through just one more day
But every time I have those fears
I think of me in 20 years
Telling me you ll be just fine
Just keep on walking towards the light

Am F C G

Am

You ll be just fine, youâ€™ll be just fine

C

Just give it time, just give it time

F

Youâ€™ll be just fine, oh

C

Just keep on walking towards the light
