Black July Joshua James

From the Build me this Album. Capo on 3rd fret.

Chords:

Dm: 022000
Gm: X02210
A7: X2120X
Bb7: X3231X
F: 320003
C: XX0232

The intro/verse riff is done like this with the Em and Am chords

Intro: Dm
Verse 1:

Dm

I will miss the sunshine.

Dm

I will miss the moon.

 \mathbf{Dm}

 $\ensuremath{\text{\textbf{I}}}$ will miss the snowfields that put sparkles in your shoes

Gm Dm

But I am gone, I am gone.

$A7$ $Bb7$ $A7$ $Dm$ If this road leads to destruction, it s hell that I call home.

Verse 2:

Dm

I could kiss you darlin

Dπ

but these hands are stained.

Dm

I could beg forgiveness, but it can t bring me home again.

Gm Dm

No, my love. No, my love.

A7 Bb7 A7 Dm

If this road leads to destruction, it s hell that I call home.

Chorus:

Bb F C F

You could throw me out, and you could burn my boat and I ain t one to wonder why.

Bb F A7

Dm

But you brought me here to lay my stone-my love, my love- on this black day in July.

Verse 3:

You could call me sinner, you could call me saint.

Yeah, you can call me what you will, but this home s about to break.

Oh, my love, I never I wanted it this way.

Well, you know I loved you darlin, but it s in hell that I must stay.

Chorus:

You could throw me out, you could burn my boat and I ain t one to wonder why. But you brought me here to lay my stone, my love, my love, on this black day in July.

Solo:

Dm

Bb F C F

Bb F A7 Dm

Chorus:

You could throw me out, you could burn my boat and I ain t one to wonder why. But you brought me here to lay my stone, my love, my love, on this black day in July.

Em riff to finish.

Tabbed by Floor Demon