

Mystic

Joshua James

From his From the Top of Willamette Mountain album.
You can play it in standard tuning with the chords, but the ringing D bass note is quite prominent on the recording. Avoid playing the high e string.

D: 000230

G: 5X0030

D/F#: 4X0030

Bm: X24432

A: X02220

D

There is a mystic in the mountain, high above the great salt lake
Dancing in the heavens, far below his golden gates

G                   D                   G                   D

He s looking at our cars below, laughing at our rock and roll

D

So I found a little woman, thought that I could change her name
She had the colour of the city and the fire of the country flame

G                   D                   G                   Bm   A   D

So I hid my body down below, hoping that my skin wont show

G-D/F#-D

D

Mystic from the mountain, in the end what did you say wed find
A promise from a pamphlet, a crucifixion on your highway sign

G                   D                   G                   Bm   A

But I sold you for a cigarette, does it make you want to love me less

Bm                   G                   A                   D

And if I dont believe. What does that mean?

Bm                   G                   A                   D

And when I die alone, who will eat my soul

G                   D                   G                   D

In the cave of God, while the angels watch

G                   D                   Bm   A   D

Theres a manic scream, hallelujah

Babe I know I lost you, moment you could finally see

The part of me Id hidden, far below our leather seats

If I could make you understand the empty that I tried fill

Id crucify my body, leave the pieces at your mystics heels

But I sold you for a cigarette
I hope youd sell me off for less

And if we dont agree
What does that leave
And when you die alone
I will eat your soul

In the cave of God
While the angels watch
Theres a manic scream hallelujah
