

Ribbon Bows
Joshua James

Saw that there was nothing on this song and figured I d give it a shot.
This is just how I play the chorus:

(F#m) (D) (A) (E)
Was it really worth it all, to give up laughter in the hall?

(F#m) (D) (A) (E) (F#m)
And did you cut your ribbon bows, for the man, who seems to know?

(D) (A) (E) (F#m)
Did he promise did he say, that you d be home again some day?

(D) (A) (E)
Cuz while the sun it finally sets. We ll find you drowning.

And that s all I ve got so far. If you ve got any corrections please post them, as
I did this just by listening to the song and judging what sounds the closest.
