INTRO: G Bm C G D

G
I was just thinking
Bm
It s been a long time
C
Since I got to see you
G D
Tell you, I wish you were mine
G
And so I ve been sinking
Bm
Into this dark place
C
Cause I need to hold you
G D
Tell you, I ll never be fine
C G
Unless you come home
C D
I wish you would come home

Em C G D
So long sunshine I ve opened my eyes
Em C G D
Clouds of grey have taken my warm sky
Em C G D
Away Still I know
Am C G D
You re always, you re always

G
Once
Bm
I thought I saw you
Wearing those blue jeans
G D
The ones with the holes in the knees
G
But I was mistaken
Bm

It was a stranger

And she flashed me a smile

As if she could somehow see

That I need you to come home

I wish you would come home

So long sunshine I've opened my eyes

Clouds of grey have taken my warm sky

Away Still I know

You're always, you're always

The day broke, it turned us around

We ended up on the ground

Suddenly everything changed

So long sunshine I've opened my eyes

Clouds of grey have taken my warm sky

Away Still I know

You're always, you're always
