

Silly Fly

Josiah Leming

I've tabbed this out, but it looks funny when I post it on here. If you want it

(verse)

Em B
Silly fly where's your self-control?

C G C G
You're flying high and everyone's gone home. Still you carry on alone.

Em B
Silly fly have you ever had enough?

C G C B
When there's warning line before too much, still you just can't get enough.

(chorus)

Em C
Silly Fly, do you think that you're a bird?

G D
Yeah your flying, but your wings are old and torn.

Em C
Silly fly, do you think that that's a star?

G D
Yeah it's shining, but you won't get what you came for.

(verse - same as above)

Silly fly your pestering the crowd.
Your cleverness is all but wearing out and you're just not coming down
Silly fly you claim you lost a friend.
But there was never one when you began, just a joker in a skin.

(chorus - same as above)

Silly Fly, do you think that you're a bird?
Yeah your flying, but your wings are old and torn.
Silly fly, do you think that that's a star?
Yeah it's shining, but you won't get what you came for.

Em G C (B) Em G C B
When will you figure out, closer to the sun is further from the ground...

Em G C B

Will you scream out loud?

Em G C B

I was closing on the sun now Iâ€™m falling to the ground.

C D

Ground, ground...

(chorus - same as above)

Silly Fly, do you think that youâ€™re a bird?

Yeah, your flying but youâ€™re wings are old and torn.

Silly fly, do you think that thatâ€™s a star?

Yeah, itâ€™s shining but you wonâ€™t get what you came for.
