Joyce Manor

[Intro]

Fm

C#5

So you just stand there

G#5

With a dollar at your feet

F#5

And you wait as I retreat

G#5

To go get mine

C#5

And when I get back

G#5

You re still waiting silently

F#5

Cause my mother s fast asleep

G#5

Right next door

G#5 C#5

Yeah, I m 26 and I still live with my parents

G#5

Oh, I can t do laundry

F#5

Christ, I can t do dishes

G#5

What ll I do without you

C#5

When your body fails you

G#5

When nobody loves you

F#5

All they do is miss you

G#5

But they don t even care

#

So be careful when you run downstairs

G#

Be careful who you talk to

F#

Or the wonderful way you walk

G#

You are like a magnet for all evil

```
So you just stand there
       G#5
With a dollar at your feet
       F#5
And you wait as I retreat
          G#5
To go get mine
          C#5
And when I get back
           G#5
You re too terrified to speak
        F#5
And my brother s such a creep
     G#5
Even more
         G#
                                    C#
Yeah, be careful when you run downstairs
                   G#
Be careful who you talk to
Or the wonderful way you walk
You are like a magnet for all evil
Cause there s so much good inside you
And I wish that I could hide you
Some place no one could hurt you
                    G#
Where nobody could change you
                    C#5
I ll lock you in my room
And I ll tie you to the sheets
                                   C#5
Cause I could watch you sleep for weeks
                           G#5
Oh, the things you d never see
If it were up to me
F#
     G#
          A#m
                G#
     G#
          A#m
                G#
               F#
Oh, I can t do laundry
Christ, I can t do dishes
```

What ll I do without you
