Ana Paula se fué
                         Am
Ana Paula ya no está
                         Dm
And I may not believe
   F
That she stayed for such short time
                         G
And right now I am sure
   Am
She is happily laughing now
                         Dm
And she saw what it was
                         F
Our complicated lives
                         G
And somehow inside me
                         Am
I fell a beautiful peace
                         Dm
Even though many plans
                         F
Seem completely unfulfilled
                         G
Many time probably
                         Am
Obviously Im quite naive
                         Dm
You achieved what many
                         F
Never ever ever will
                         G
Instantly with yourself
                         Am
You implanted it as seed
                         Dm
Of your love and your traits
                         Am                    Dm
That no one will ever be
