E A, E F#m E

E

Did you have something to say

A

Or were you just drinkin again

E

F#m

Did you call me up to see if I was alone?

E

Drinkin down those last call blues

And wearin out your wedding shoes

E

F#m

E

Wishin your life was your own

I ve been thinkin about the way
You sparkled when you fell for him
You wore it on your face and your new dress
Sneakin around on my dime
Finally your spotlight shined
Congratulations, I guess

CHORUS:

A

Leave me alone, leave me alone

E

F#m

All the judges and the lawyers have gone home

E

F#7

Leave me alone, just leave me alone

E

F#m

You re not my hell now

F#m

E

Get off my phone

I heard about the A-frame
That sits way up on Bunker Hill
You were the star of every room, I m told
Fame is fame at any price
It s just a roll of your soul dice, babe

Just don't get old

CHORUS (All the counselors and therapists have flown)

INSTRUMENTAL on VERSE chords

Did you have something to say
Or were you just drinkin' again?
Did you call me up to see if I was alone?
I cried when you shut me out
But all I feel is nothing now
For you and your heart of stone

CHORUS 3:

Leave me alone, leave me alone
All the jugglers and acrobats have taken all I own
Leave me alone, just leave me alone
You're not my hell now

E A

This ain't your home

E F#m

You're not my hell now

E

Get off my phone
