Intro: C F C F

Verse 1:

C

I go outside

F

Ask the air if it would like to hide

C

Take a deep breath

Am

Walk inside my prize

C

In my lungs I still feel young

Em

Fm

Am

But my body won't play along

F

G

C

I'm thinking this must not be where we belong

Verse 2: (Same as verse 1)

And the world

Split in two from the throng

Of every living soul

Screaming at the top of their lungs

Singing this is my word

But somehow we never get heard

There's just an echo

From a lost and lonely world

Chorus:

C

And I dare you to survive

Em Fm C B
Being grown for the rest of your life
 F G C
From adulthood no one survives.

Verse 3:

C
Ten billion feet
 F
Pounding at the ground each week
 Am Em G
Every secret, every burden they keep
 F C
Each one s waiting on the chance
 Em Fm C
To be lifted off the ground but then
 F G C
To discover that we ll all be dust again

Chorus

Interlude:

F C Em Fm Am B* F G Am
F C Em Fm Am B* F G C

Chorus:

F C
And I dare you to survive
 Em Fm C B
Being grown for the rest of your life
 F G Am
From adulthood no one survives.
 F G C
From adulthood no one survives.
