Oh Emily
Jukebox the Ghost

Song: Oh, Emily
Artist: Jukebox The Ghost
Album: Safe Travels

Tuning: Standard, Capo 4th fret
(All chords relative to capo)

All B* chords are played like this (because I don t know the name of the actual chord):
e:-0-
B:-1-
G:-0-
D:-0-
A:-2-
E:-x-

Verse 1:
C                                            Am
Don t you find it curious how we can disagree,
    C                                        Am
How two of us in one place can see two different things?

C    Am

C                            F   C         B*  Am   Em   Am  F  G
Don t you find it strange how we never coincide?
C                            F   C         B*    Am   Em   Am  F  G
Such a massive heartbreak, neither of us survived

Pre-Chorus:
F
Spring turns into summer turns to fall
G
You have changed but I don t change at all
F
Fall turns into winter turns to spring
G
You have changed but I don t change a thing

Chorus:
    C                Em         F      Am
Oh Emily, youâ€™re a funny girl and I didnâ€™t mean to break your heart
G        C                    Em         F
But Iâ€™m lost and in love with everyone, and so
Am                           G
Nowâ€™s as good as any as a place to startâ€¦

C Am

Verse 2: (Same as 2nd half of Verse 1)
Grass that bursts through concrete and wolves out in the wild
Roots below the old streets break through after a while Everything will crumble like rocks inside a stream
But will we ever find out what's buried underneath?

Pre-Chorus: (Same as last)
Spring turns into summer turns to fall
You have changed but I don't change at all
Fall turns into winter turns to spring
You have changed but I don't change a thing

Chorus

C Am C Am

C
When I think I don't miss it I miss it…
Am
When I think I don't miss it I miss it…

Pre-Chorus
