Please don't tell me if I accidentally stumble
 Into something that reminds you of her
 No, I don't need your previous logistics
 Where you spent your last Christmas
 Spare your past-life specifics, oh

 And when your friends tell stories about 03
 I hope they hardly can recall there was a you without a me
 Wish I could be blissfully unaware
 Of the history in your couch
 And who your songs all used to be about

 You tell me not to worry, I'm the only thing you see
 Well, yeah, I fucking better be

 I wanna live in a world where all your exes are dead (All your exes)
 I wanna kill all the memories that you saved in your head (Oh)
