

Winter On The Weekend
Julia Stone

Julia Stone- Winter On The Weekend

Hey! This is my first chord set, it is very straightforward. It sounds correct when you play it with the recording. I played it on the piano but itâ€™s just as easy to play on the guitar
The intro starts on an Eb, then to a C. Itâ€™s not hard to work out from that.

Cm Ab Fm G

Cm

He s a dog

Ab

But he s dressed up like a sheep

Fm

Got bones all through the backyard

G

But he likes to drink tea

Cm

We play scrabble on the weekend

Ab

And he talks about the weather most of the time

Fm

I thought my sacred body

G

With him it would be fine

Cm

And I walked into the doorway

Ab

He slid across the room

Fm

My heart, it started racing

G

I just didn t know what to do

Cm

And he laid me on the floor

Ab

And my screams they go unheard

Fm

The lady living next door

G

Well she s six feet under the dirt

Cm

Daddy, why don't you protect me

Ab

Someone's gonna hurt me

Fm G

There's nothing I can do

Cm

Daddy, why don't you protect me

Ab

Someone's gonna hurt me

Fm G

There's nothing I can do

Cm

He's a dog

Ab

But he's dressed up like a sheep

Fm

He's got bones all through the backyard

G

But he likes to fool me

Cm

And I travel through the doorway

Ab

I thought I'd be fine

Fm G

But it's not the way it's gonna go this time

Cm

Daddy, why don't you protect me

Ab

Someone's gonna hurt me

Fm G

There's nothing I can do

Cm

Daddy, why don't you protect me

Ab

Someone's gonna hurt me

Fm G

There's nothing I can do

Ab Bb

And all this time I needed you

Ab Fm

And all this time I wanted you

Bb Ab

You can't hear me now

Fm

Can't hear me now

G

Like you do

(Up the octave)

Cm

Daddy, why don't you protect me

Ab

Someone's gonna hurt me

Fm G

There's nothing I can do

Cm

Daddy, why don't you protect me

Ab

Someone's gonna hurt me

Fm G

There's nothing I can do
