

Only If You Run
Julian Plenti

F C Dm Bb x4

Iâ€™ve had my frustrations about the pains of daily life

Iâ€™ve tasted degradation and found the lace and candle light

But we have the weights, we have the measures of our days and nights

Iâ€™ve had my frustrations, but now Iâ€™ve found my place

And you will make it

But only if you run

Only if you run

Only if you run

Bb Dm F Am

These lonely dedications Iâ€™ve found, they bring me peace and light

When three-fold applications of doubt surround my fate, you might say

We have the weights, we have to wage an assault on what it is â€˜Cause harmless medications abound and youâ€™re not sick

You will make it

But only if you run

Only if you run (You will make it)

Only if you run
