Neath the blossoms waiting

The moments pass into hours

The hours pass into years

And as she smiles through her tears

A
She murmurs low

D Em
The moon and I

A D Em
Know that he ll be faithful

But if he don t come back

A D Em
Then I ll never sigh or cry

Em
I just must die

First tab, first tab - go easy on me! Constructive criticism welcome! As you can see were a few instances where I couldn't pick between A and A7 - maybe some keen ears can help out with that, and any other major oopsies I may have made. Of course, I wouldn't expect people would be looking for this song...ah well, I do hope you special few who come this will enjoy it =)
