

Borrowed Minivans

Julie Doiron

Tp play the C-chords in before the words start and in between, just lift your finger on the b string to make it open (if your playing an open C as in 032010)
I think this is pretty right...

C

All of this town seems drunk tonight
And I m looking for your hand

Am

The girls i see now are driving around

F

C

In borrowed minivans

E

They re wearing tanktops and knee-high pants

F

And laughingly singing out loud

C

Am

They re running around this old town

F

C

Looking for their man

C

Some of the people seem lost tonight
With all their drunken hands in flight

Am

F

So take me to the country land

C

It s time for us to make our stand

F

And it s time to make some music right

C

We ll know each other better tonight

E

So carry me out past the place i live

F

I think I m ready I m ready to give

C

F

C

You anything everything little and big

C

I m ready I m ready I m ready to live

C

We re leaving the land of buried barns
To wet basement apartments and into our arms

Am

F

Flying in bursts through the watery parks

C

C

C

C

C

We ll fly on our bikes in this dark dark dark dark

E

And all of the people are with us tonight

F

And all of their hopeful plans

C

F

C

So take me to the countryside so we can make our stand

E

And it s time to make some music right

F

Time to make this land feel bright

C

F

C

And it s time to use our hands for right

C

F

C

And make this place feel bright tonight
