

Draggin The River
Julie Miller

[Intro]

D G D

[Verse]

G D
Gone down to the water and listen for a sound

C
Something like the moaning of a dove

D G D
That s where I do my crying while I m searching for a sign
F C D
Draggin the river of our love

[Verse]

G D
Did she bear some secret sorrow I could never know

C
Is that why my heart was not enough

D G D
Now she s left me looking for a trace of what we had
F C D
I m draggin the river of our love

[Chorus]

G F D
There s thunder and lightning and a storm in my soul

F G D
I m broken down and I m fixing to cry

G F D
She was my heartbeat and she was my blood

F G A
I might as well just lay down and die

[Instrumental]

D G D C D G D F C D

[Verse]

G D
Solid as a tombstone, silent as a grave

C
Now loneliness fits me like a glove

D G D
Was her promise a mistake or just an outright lie

F C D
I m draggin the river of our love

[Chorus]

G F D
There s thunder and lightning and a storm in my soul
F G D
I m broken down and I m fixing to cry
G F D
She was my heartbeat and she was my blood
F G A
I might as well just lay down and die

[Verse]

D G D
The sky is low and heavy and full of tears tonight
C
And it s just a fingernail moon above
D G D
Tonight you re gonna find me like every night before
F C D
Draggin the river of our love
F C D
Draggin the river of our love
F C D
I m draggin the river of our love
