

Home To Mama
Justin Bieber

                  C                  Am
I don t work hard when it s easy
                  G                  F
I put in work when it s hard
                  C                  Am          G                  F
And girl, I never believed in love until I had yours
                  C                  Am
This is more than a season
                  G                  F
And I m not just sprung
                  C  Am                  G          F
I m not afraid to tell you that you re the one
                  C                  Am                  G          F
I m the one you wake up thinking about
                  C                  Am                  G          F
The one I can run to when I m feeling down
C                  Am                                  G          F
Life is all good when you re around
                  C                                  Am                  G                  F
Girl, nobody from the past is beating you right now

Refrão:

                  C                  Am
Cause I ll take you home to mama
                  G                  F
I ll let you meet my friends
                  C                  Am
Cause you don t come with drama
                  G                                  F
So I want you until the world ends
                  C                                  Am
You re way more than worth it
                  G                                  F
And I don t feel like I deserve it
                  C          Am
You got the pieces
                  G                                  F
Yeah, you re my kind of perfect
