G C

% Sometimes when I m dreaming, and I m far away from home
The places that I ve been to, trying to see them through her eyes

G Em

I kind of get the feeling, that I m never quite alone
Like the picture from the childhood, that I thought I d left behind

F G

See I just can t help but think about you baby
See I just can t help but think about you baby

Time is of the essence, and the candle s burning low
The sunrise in the morning, and the glory that was ours

G Em

Remind me to remember, that there s not so far to go
Is captured in a moment, making love among the stars

F G

I just can t help but think about you baby
I just can t help but think about you baby
