

For Some Ol Redneck Reason

Justin Moore

Justin Moore " For Some Ole Redneck Reason

Capo I

Intro: D

Verse 1:

D

I love tearin'™ down some country road As the red sun™s sinking down

D

Nothing but corn and cotton fields For miles and miles around

G

D

Down every twist and turn, There™s another million dollar view

G

Some folks might not see it

D

But for some old redneck reason I do

Verse 2:

D

I still wear my beat up boots and my old worn out jeans

D

I still say the blessing when I sit down to eat

G

D

And you can bet I mind my manners every time my momma walks in the room

G

Some folks don™t think that matters

D

But for some old redneck reason I do

Chorus:

G

C/G G

C/G

Yeah, for some old redneck reason, sometimes I get the feelin'™

D

Maybe I give too much of it now.

G

C/G G

C/G

I™m a little old fashion leanin'™, out of style and out of season

D

But I reckon that™s just the way I am.

Verse 3:

D

Sometimes I lay here thinkin'™ 'Bout the good old times that we had

D

Wonder why it all went wrong Or the night it all went bad

D

And I probably shouldn™t call you up, Thinkin'™ I can patch things up with you

G

Oh, but when I get to drinkin

D

For some old redneck reason I do

Chorus:

G C/G G C/G

Yeah, for some old redneck reason, sometimes I get the feelin'™

G D

Maybe I give too much of it now

G C/G G C/G

I'm a little old fashion leanin'™, out of style and out of season

G D

But I reckon that's just the way I am

Verse 4:

D

I was standing behind a couple teenage kids at a high school football game

D

They didn't take their hats off when the national anthem played

D

And I felt like jerkin a knot in their tail, for disrespecting that ole Red,
White and Blue

G

Well maybe I shouldn't get fightin'™ mad

D

But for some old redneck reason I do

Outro: D

There is some pull offs and such. you gotta know the song to get it.
dont be too harsh im only 17 and have only been playing for 9 months. this is my first tab
