

Guns
Justin Moore

D C
I started out with a .410, then moved to a .20 gauge.

G A
Every squirrel and rabbit in Dallas county knew my name.

D C
I sat on the stand with PawPaw from the time I was three years old.

G A
When I was eight I used a muzzle loader to kill my first doe.

D C
These days I go down to Wal-Mart and they set em in the back.

G A
Some people wanna take em away, why don t you go bust them boys that sellin crack.

D C
Guns, whether Remingtons and Glocks.

G A
Come on man it ain t like I m a slingin em on the block.

D C
I m gunna tell you once and listen son.

G A
As long as I m alive and breathing,
You wont take my guns.

D C
If there ever was a time we need em,
I d say it be today.

G A
When we re letting them terrorists watch cable TV and walk out of Guantanamo Bay.

D C
I just try to do the right thing and raise my family in this land.

G A
Treating me like you want to be treated and that s what I call a man.

D C
If we don t have em, what do we do. Tell me where we gunna go.

G A
Somebody breaks into my house, I m gunna need my Colt .44.

D C
Guns, whether Remingtons and Glocks.

G A
Come on man it, ain t like I m a slingin em on the block.

D C
I m gunna tell you once and listen son.

G A
As long as I m alive and breathing,

A

You wont take my guns.

Listen.

D C

Guns. Whether Remingtons or Glocks.

G A

Come on man, it ain t like I m a slingin em on the block.

D C

I m gunna tell once and listen son.

G A

As long as I m alive and breathing,

D C G A

And I m still breathing

D

You wont take my guns.

D

C

G

A

No, you can take em from me when you take em from my grandpa and my daddy