Old Back In The New School
Justin Moore

Capo 1

* means Strum twice quickly

A* A* A* A*   E*

D
What's wrong with sayin' yes sir, sayin'
yes ma'am, a hard day's work
A   E
Showin' up pretty much on time
What's wrong with waitin' your turn,
payin' your dues, keepin' your word
A   E
And lookin' a man right in the eye
E
You can wear your pants down around your knees
                                C D B A*
But that don't mean a dang to me

Just put a little old back in the new school
Get that workin' man back on the bar stool
Just 'cause somethin's hip don't make it cool
D   A
Let's put a little old back in the new school

A* A*   E*

I don't mind some attitude, a rebel heart, hell I got one too
A   E
But you still gotta walk the line
D
I don't care what you listen to,
how you wear your hair you can paint it blue
A   E
Hey, it takes all kinds
E
Johnny rocked and Willie rolled,   C D B A

they just did it with a whole lot more soul

Just put a little old back in the new school
Get that workin' man back on the bar stool
Just 'cause somethin's hip don't make it cool
D   A
Let's put a little old back in the new school

 D A   D A

My grandpa just turned 83
I hope some of him rubbed off on me
He's still cooler than I'll ever be C D B A x2

Just put a little old back in the new school
(Yeah) Get that workin' man back on the bar stool
Just 'cause somethin's hip don't make it cool
D   A
Let's put a little old back in the new school

A   E
Yeah I might be young but I ain't no fool
     D   A
Come on, let's put a little old back in the new school Yeah, new school
Put some old back in it
